My comment is this---This settlement should have ended a long time ago. If it weren't for the Attorney Generals of seven states-one of which I am sad to say that I am a resident of- continually wanting to bring charges against Microsoft, it would have been settled. I do not know what these "seven" think they will accomplish. What is wrong with competition?

It sounds more like a vendetta than anything else. Money spent in court with charges against Microsoft could be spent in so many better ways. Accept what Microsoft has offered and get on with life.
